Outline of Competition logistics	This was the 4 th GP in the series of 5. It was moved from Carlisle due to the flooding in that area having put the range under water. As usual the competition was run on Megalinks, with a Qualification stage prior to a final. There are 3 qualification relays where athletes can shoot extra matches if there is space but it is the first Qualification match that counts towards obtaining a place in the final.

Meyton Cup, Tirol
Discipline	Rifle
Dates	25 th & 26 th January 2016
Venue/Country	Innsbruck, Austria
Results		Match 1	Match 2
	Jennifer McIntosh	408.3 32 nd / 40	414.2 15 th / 41
Outline of travel and accommodation logistics	Travel to Innsbruck was made by driving to Munich and driving the rest of the way. This worked well as Donald & Jennifer were also shooting at the IWK Munich event in the days following this competition.
Outline of Competition logistics	There was a match and final each day so good competition preparation. The standard was very high at the top of the leaderboard without the depth you would see at a World Cup event but still requiring good scores to make the final, higher than 415.0 required both days. The top of the leaderboard was truly world class, the top score each day being better than 420.0.

Gold Coast 2018

Team Scotland's General Selection Policy has been finalised for the Gold Coast 2018 Commonwealth Games and is available as a download here:

<http://www.cgcs.org.uk/inc/pages-download.aspx?doc=Gold-Coast-2018-General-Selection-Policy.pdf>

Commonwealth Games Scotland said:

Following extensive consultation with sports governing bodies and key stakeholders, the final General Selection Policy and Standards document has now been published following the 2015 half yearly Council meeting, with the aim of selecting a team that performs with distinction in 2018:

- Having a higher percentage of athletes meeting the selection standards when in competition at the Games than in 2014

- Achieving our highest ever number of medals at a Games outwith Scotland.

The General Selection Standards include the following:

- The selection standard is based on a minimum performance level of the ability to show a top six or top half of the field performance (whichever is the tighter) in the Commonwealth.
- To ensure representation across the full programme of sports, all individual sports will be represented in the 2018 Commonwealth Games by up to four athletes and all team sports will be represented by a minimum of one team, subject to invitation by the CGF.

Throughout 2016 CGS will work with the sports on the Gold Coast sport programme to develop the Sport Specific Selection Policy and Standards so that they are available well in advance of the selection period which will open in 2017.
